EXPERIENCE

Amido, London — React and Javascript Developer

June 2015 - PRESENT

- Architected and Front end led a ReactJS and Flux project, delivering a 'real time' cricket manager MMO browser game, complete with leagues, team management, player fatigue, stadiums, Facebook integration and more!
- Architected a re-design for CBRE's high-end commercial and residential property map search and listing SPA. I was also involved in training developers in Flux best practices and preparing them on re-structuring their Flux workflow to benefit from ReduxJS single state store.
- Built vanilla javascript SDK's for ASOS, providing api-to-client middleware for web and mobile platforms.

Rated People, London — Senior Web Developer

NOVEMBER 2013 - JUNE 2015

- Pitched and Tech Led the rebuild of customer logged in experiences, from a custom javascript MVC into Backbone.js and Node.js. The application included sections such as profiles, member benefits, subscriptions, search, gmaps and purchasing.
- Built and maintained loyalty and benefit web applications in Symfony and jQuery
- Tutored Junior developers on how to architect their Javascript and CSS using Object Oriented approaches.

IPC MEDIA, London — Digital Developer

AUGUST 2011 - NOVEMBER 2013

- Developed a media rich parallax site for Chambord, promoting just how nice it is with cocktails!
- Developed a blog site in Symfony for Coca Cola, promoting fashion StyleItLight
- Developed SPA's for a number of clients, including: Estée Lauder, Kelloggs, Tesco, TRESemmé and Remmington. These were built using a of combination of jQuery, Symfony, Action Script and/or Drupal.
